

I signed up for the no call list because I'm sick and tired of getting calls all the time from people that I don't care to hear from. Why have it if these people are allowed to call people that are on the list?